JULY 2010

The Website

Well, it's official! The brand-new River Silks website has been launched. Check out the complete products list, gallery, retailers, designers, instructors, and more.

The Blog

Let's face it, it's exciting surfing the web and finding people using and talking about our ribbon. So, we decided to start a blog to share all these great finds, inspirations, finished projects, Fiber Arts bloggers, all using our ribbon. Hopefully, the blog can become a resource for ribbon fanatics everywhere. Subscribe to the rss feed. We're posting about once a week or so.

Facebook

If Facebook is your thing, River Silks has a Facebook page. We'll be featuring recent news, projects and product updates.
